NOW, TO WIT, the 26th day of January, A. D. 1923 personally came William D. Kennedy and on his solemn oath did depose, declare, and say, that he believes that Amelia M. Kennedy died without a will.

That William D. Kennedy will, as the administrator well and truly administer the goods and chattels, rights and credits of said deceased, according to law.

That he will immediately publish for creditors, once a week for six successive weeks, and render into the Register's Office, within thirty days from this date, a just and true inventory and appraisement of the personal estate of said deceased, and additional inventories when necessary. Also a just and true account, calculation, and reckoning of his said administration in six months from this date, or when thereunto legally required. That he will diligently and faithfully regard, and well and truly comply with the provisions of law relating to inheritance taxes. And also that the decedent left to survive her, a husband, said administrator and four children William P. Kennedy, Lucius E. Kennedy, Katherine M. Sherman and Harold S. Kennedy and also that the whole of the goods, chattels, rights and credits of the estate and effects, for or in respect of which Letters of Administration are applied for which Amelia M. Kennedy died possessed of, in the aggregate do not in the value exceed the sum of unknown dollars, at the best of his knowledge and belief.
